Kifowit Hosting Cost-Saving “Staycations” Seminar for Families

AURORA, Ill. – Finding quality family activities can sometimes be difficult or costly, so to help families in the area stay within their budget and still have fun this summer, state Rep. Stephanie Kifowit, D-Oswego, will host a “Staycations” seminar on Thursday, April 16 at 6 p.m. at the Aurora Public Library, 555 S. Eola Rd, in Aurora.

“Our beautiful state parks, historic cities, and vast bodies of water can be visited at only a fraction of the cost of travel to go someplace else,” Kifowit said. “Attendees will hear tips on how to have an enjoyable ‘staycation’ in Illinois while also being able to save a considerable amount of money.”

Kifowit’s “Staycations” seminar will feature three guest speakers; to speak on state parks and outdoor activities will be Mr. Mike Stevens from the Illinois Department of Natural Resources, discussing how to organize short weekend “staycations” for families wishing to explore the DuPage County area and events will be Ms. Beth Marchetti of the DuPage Convention & Visitors Bureau, and Aurora Public Library (APL) official Heather M. Sturm will share all about APL summer programs for children and teens like the youth library talent show, anime club, chess club, Lego club, and the kids’ book club.

“Sometimes a small weekend staycation is perfect to relax, recharge and reconnect with our families,” Kifowit said. “Illinois State parks and DuPage County destinations are relatively close-by and affordable when comparing other typical vacation spots. Our speakers will provide invaluable information to help families get the perfect ‘staycation’ whether it is for a weekend or a whole week.”

This event is free and open to the public. To RSVP or for more information, please contact Kifowit’s constituent service office by phone at 630-585-1308, by email at Stephanie.Kifowit@att.net, or by visiting www.ILDistrict84.com.
